

Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

Climate Conference (continuation)

Madrid, 15 November 2024

09:15-10:45	ENVIRONMENTAL DYNAMIC GENERAL EQUILIBRIUM MODELS Transitioning to Net-Zero: Macroeconomic implications and Welfare Assessment Rafael Domenech (BBVA) Baumol's climate disease Fangzhi Wang (Beijing Institute of Technology) Accounting for Nature in Economic Models Nicoletta Batini (Sveriges Riksbank)
10:45-11:05	Coffee Break
11:05-12:05	CLIMATE AND CENTRAL BANKS Green transition in the Euro Area: domestic and global factors Kostas Mavromatis (De Nederlandsche Bank) Green energy transition and vulnerability to external shocks Rubén Domínguez Díaz (Banco de España)
12:05-12:15	Break
12:15-13:15	Keynote Lecture: Greenflation? Greenflation? Conny Olovsson (Sveriges Riksbank)
13:15-14:15	Lunch

14:15-15:45

POLICIES AGAINST CLIMATE CHANGE

Pro-Cyclical Emissions and Optimal Monetary Policy

Matthias Kaldorf (Bundesbank)

Warning words in a warming world: Central bank communication and climate change

Davide Romelli (Trinity College)

Climate change, catastrophes, uninsurability and the macroeconomy

Linda Rousova (European Central Bank)

15:45-16:15

Break

16:15-17:15

SOCIECONOMIC ASPECTS OF CLIMATE CHANGE

Climate Change and Socio-Economic Inequality in the US

Tatjana Dalhaus (Bank of Canada)

The Interactions of Social Norms about Climate Change: Science, Institutions and Economics

Antonio Cabrales (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid)

17:15-17:30

Closing remarks

21:00

Dinner by invitation